

TS GEN. PERSHING S RETURN HOME

On the steps of the City Hall with the General's own colors over him. Gov. "Al" Smith and Mayor Hylan are the especial escorts of the city's distinguished guest, while roundabout are lesser lights of the reception committee.

Photo by a Sun staff photographer.

One of the many lively groups that went down the bay in various craft to welcome the General. Prominent is Bernard M. Baruch.

Copyright, Press Illustrating.

Hall. Departure of the General from the Waldorf-Astoria. Squads of motor cycles formed the escort on the pier.

Photo, Paul Thompson.

Close up of the General in his automobile leaving the City Hall. His gaze is directed toward the skyscraping Municipal Building.

Photo, Paul Thompson.

Passing down the gangplank from the Leviathan after an absence from America of two years. "Home at last" might be the best and shortest caption for this photograph.

© I.C. Film Service

Marshal Ferdinand Foch bidding farewell and bon voyage to General Pershing just as the General was leaving Brest for America.

Copyright, International Film.

Leaving the Hoboken ship for Pier A, New York, with General Pershing. The distinguished company.

Photo, Paul Thompson.

MITTEE,
NEW YORK